UAE visas: Who can apply for the UAE Tourist eVisa?

Most nationalities require a visa to visit the UAE. The Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) citizens are the only visa-exempt category, so they do not need tourist visas or permits to enter Dubai or Abu Dhabi. This includes Bahrain, Oman, Kuwait, Qatar, and Saudi Arabia nationals. They only need to present their GCC country passport or national ID card to enter the United Arab Emirates.

However, you can use Visa Checker Tool at the top of this page to ensure if your nationality must apply for this UAE Visa.

Be aware that children also need tourist visas to enter the UAE. Besides the passport and photo, you'll also need the child's birth certificate to complete the visa application. Another UAE entry rule is that females below the age of 18 are not eligible to apply for this type of visa unless they are traveling with their parents.

How to apply for a UAE visa through the UAE government

The UAE embassy does not issue visit, tourist, work, or transit visas for ordinary passport holders. Nevertheless, they license travel agents, hotels, and airlines to process the eVisa.

Read further information about the visa application on the Ministry of Foreign Affairs & International Cooperation website.

How to apply for a UAE visa through hotels and visa agents

There are licensed travel agents and hotels to process Tourist Visas. When booking your travel activities and accommodation, ask if the companies offer this service. If they can assist you, you must provide them with all the necessary documents for your tourist visa application.

How to apply for a UAE visa through airline companies

Airlines can process the Transit and Tourist Visas for the UAE. You can complete the visa application online on the Air Arabia, Fly Dubai, Emirates Airlines, or Etihad Airways websites.

What are the visa fees and processing times of the United Arab Emirates Tourist eVisa?

The cost of the eVisa will vary depending on the processing time you choose. We offer three processing options according to your needs, and we include the government visa fee so you can pay all at once

Once your visa is ready, you'll receive it via email to present it to the immigration officer upon arrival.

Can I apply for a visa extension or renewal?

The Tourist eVisa allows travelers to stay 30 days in Total in the country and request a visa extension twice, which you can also call a visa renewal. Each extension permits another 30 days-stay. However, since December 2022, travelers must leave the UAE to request a visa extension. Another option is to leave the country and apply for a new UAE Tourist eVisa. The new visa will grant you the same length of stay.

Be aware that overstayers have to pay 100 AED per day and 100 AED service costs paid at the border crossing. So its best to leave the UAE with the visa still valid.
